SEWING MACHINES

CLASS DETAILS

Get to Know Your Sewing Machine (One on One Class)

Become familiar with your sewing machine by learning about each part of your machine, how it works and how to maintain it. This is a one off class customised for your machine, booking is essential. We work through the functions and features at a pace that you feel comfortable with, so that you feel competent using all aspects of your machine. We take the time to show you how to use your needle thread, wind a bobbin correctly, thread the machine, how to use all the knobs, dials and buttons, and go through all your accessories that come with the machine. We also go through the maintenance and basic handling of the machine.

Tutors: Corrie McNeil or Wendy Murray
Cost: $85 (1 hr)

Please note, this is a free class for all owners of new machines bought at Allmake, embroidery machines owners receive a second lesson for learning how to use the embroidery unit.

Get to Know Your Overlocker - part 1

Become acquainted with the basic functions of your overlocker in this hands on class. Margrit knows overlockers inside out, no matter which brand or model. You will learn how to thread, maintain and set the tension for different fabrics and set the machine up for rolled hem, 3-thread, 4-thread overlocking. You will leave this class feeling more competent and empowered! This class is a lot of fun -come and learn about something which USUALLY only brings frustration. This is a one off practical, hands on class, booking is essential.

Tutor: Margrit Leuenberger
Cost: $75 (2-2.5 hrs)

Please note, this is a free class for all owners of new machines bought at Allmake.

Get to Know Your Overlocker - part 2

If you have done the 'Get to know your overlocker' Class, and are hungry for more, this class is for you! Learn about gathering, turning corners, tips and tricks, using the differential to get some special effects and much more! Booking is essential.

Tutor: Margrit Leuenberger
Cost: $75 (2-2.5 hours)

General Sewing and Dressmaking

"There should be an extra day of the week called 'Sewday'" Unknown

Beck is passionate, friendly and an engaged educator. She began sewing as a young child and continued her passion for sewing, creating, designing, and mending into her career as a Home Economics teacher. Beck has experience in all facets of dress making and sewing and can help you navigate the steps required to help you start, problem solve or successfully complete an unfinished project with confidence. Beck offers two classes at Allmake Sewing:

Make and Mend

With those in mind who don't know how to start a chosen pattern, or are stuck to know how to go on, Beck will help you jump through the hoops to successfully finish your project. With a small group of like minded makers and menders, you will get plenty of one on one time with Beck in this class.

Tutor: Beck Stevens
Cost: $30 per class

Time and Dates: 1 x month on a Thursday night, 6-8pm (pre-booking and payment required)

Class Booking Policy

Full payment for class must be received at the time of booking in for a class. If you cannot make it, please contact us at least 48 hours before class commencing for an 80% refund, or to move to the next available class date within 2 months of cancelled class. If a student does not contact us (in a case where they cannot attend) as specified above, no refund will be given. All new machines that have been bought from Allmake receive a free lesson. From date of purchase, the free lesson must be used within 12 months.

Sew it begins

Beck's children's class is all about helping your child gain confidence in cutting, pinning, sewing and problem solving. With their own chosen fabric and notions, and with some gentle instruction and guidance, your child can complete a set project amongst peers in a very friendly and encouraging environment. Once you have booked in for the class, Beck will supply the requirements list for the sewing project.

Tutor: Beck Stevens
Cost: $30 per class

Time and dates: 1 x months on a Thursday night, 4-6pm (pre-booking and payment required)

Please contact Beck on 0421993362 for further questions. To book and secure your seat with payment, please contact Beck or Allmake Sewing directly
